

CLUTTER FREE GIFT IDEAS

- A year- long subscription to the zoo, museum, aviary or science center.
- Consumables such as fruit baskets, chocolates or other sweets.
- A good wine or a special micro-brew beer. Consider a year-long sampling for a larger gift or just a bottle or 6-pack for a smaller gift.
- For the coffee drinker- a specialty coffee, gift card or free refill card to their favorite coffee shop.
- Fuel gift card or auto emergency kit for the student traveler.
- Classes or workshops for a point of interest- dancing, cooking, quilting, photography, etc.
- There are hundreds of recipes for edible and drinkable treats than can be assembled inside a jar such as cookies, soups and hot cocoa. Do a Google search for 'recipes in a jar' and take your pick.
- A visit to an indoor water park is a nice treat for the whole family especially in the dead of winter.
- A gift certificate for fitness - Yoga, Pilates or any fitness center.
- A gift card to a favorite store or restaurant; consider your local establishments when possible.
- Instead of a hardcover book consider an e-book gift.
- A charity or mission donation in someone's name.
- A gift certificate for a therapeutic massage, hair or nail salon is a luxurious treat.
- Movie, symphony, concert or theatre tickets.
- Tickets to a sporting event.
- Homemade edible treats with an accompanying recipe to share.
- Free night of babysitting for a couple with children.
- Hobby gifts – golfers, cyclers, crafters, scrap bookers and knitters would love supplies or a gift card from their favorite store.
- For family members- a photo calendar filled with family pictures, birth dates and anniversaries.
- Gift certificate for house cleaning, car wash, yard work or professional organizer ;)
- Coupons for a family night of playing games, sleepover or viewing home movies.